Keith Griffiths RIP

– we were very saddened to hear of the death of our dear friend, Keith Griffiths. He was such a good man, steeped in the Christian faith and a wonderful example of ecumenical Christianity to all of us.. He took particular pleasure in bringing representatives of all of our churches together - no mean achievement in itself! - and seeing the trust, respect and friendship grow between us. He felt, as many of us do, that ecumenism begins not in doctrinal proclamation but from the ground upwards with fellow Christians meeting, praying and working together, so that eventually our good Lord could do what he wanted for and with us all. What a wonderful vision that was and how proud we are to have been part of it. His increasing infirmity did not in any way dampen his spirit or enthusiasm for something he held so dear and like so many people in this town, We feel deeply privileged to have known him and benefited from his wisdom and loving encouragement. Keith has shown us the way. Let us not disappoint him by declining to walk it. On behalf of our own communities and all in Churches Together, we say, "well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your Master" and rest in peace, dear brother. We shall surely miss you.

First Communion Families – the last meeting for First Communion parents and children will be on Monday 10th at 6.15pm. Please be sure to come along.

First Holy Communion 2024 – the Masses will take place next weekend on Saturday and Sunday at 2.30pm and a very sincere thank you to everyone who has helped prepare our children and parents for a very special day. We are still looking for a little help after each Mass to provide tea and coffee for the families, so if any of last year's parents can help, please see Marina. We ask families to read carefully the instructions for the day which they were given two weeks ago and be sure to arrive in good time for the Masses on each day. Entrance to the church is now via the corridor to the right of the centre, which will be in use until the building work is completed. Please take one of the letters given out recently to inform you about parking restrictions for the next few weeks.

Masses of thanksgiving – June 22/23 in our parishes

Leics. Eucharistic Ministers' Renewal Day – in Hinckley on Saturday June 22nd from 10.30am-3.30pm. This is an annual day for all our ministers and we hope as many of you as possible will be able to come along. We will be making tea and coffee for our guests. Please see Fr.Frank, Fr.Michael or Marina if you can help.

Summer Fair –will be on Saturday July 6th and we hope it will be a very happy occasion. We still need a lot of help on the day and before so please think about what you can do. The raffle tickets will be sent to the printers this week so if anyone wishes to donate a major prize, please let us know. There are opportunities for stall-holders and we hope that many of you will volunteer your services and make this a good occasion. Please see Fr.Frank if you can help.

Strawberry Tea – for retired and housebound parishioners will be taking place on Sunday July 7th at 3.30pm, and will be organised by our First Communion families. Invitations are available from this weekend. Please take one and return it as soon as possible.

Election Hustings

– Churches Together are organising an open debate between the prospective candidates from the major parties for our constituency on June 26th from 6.00pm at the Meeting Centre in Marchant Road. Entrance is by invitation only and church ministers will be allocated five spaces per church community, which must be submitted in advance. If you would like an invitation, please see Fr.Frank, who will then forward the names to John Shaw at the centre, who are kindly hosting the event. This must be done no later than June 19th, so please make application this week if you can. The event will be live streamed via You Tube to allow wider public participation and details of how this can be accessed should be available from next week.

Mass Intentions – We have now almost completely run out of Mass intentions. If you would like to have a mass said for your intentions or in memory of a deceased person, please hand it in to the Priory in a clearly marked envelope.
