A very interesting read – this remarkable poem called 'Refugees', written by Brian Bilston, was given to us by Anne-Marie Bateman. When you read it first, you will probably be horrified, but then try reading it from the bottom up!

They have no need of our help

So do not tell me

These haggard faces could belong to you or I Should life have dealt a different hand.

We need to see them for who they really are

Chancers and scroungers

Layabouts and loungers

With bombs up their sleeves

Cut-throats and thieves

They are not welcome here.

We should make them go back to where they came from.

They cannot share our food

Share our homes

Share our countries

Instead let us

Build a wall to keep them out.

It's not OK to say

These are people just like us.

A place should only belong to those who are born there

Do not be so stupid to think that

The world can be looked at another way.

"Among the Rubble" – praying for peace in Palestine and Israel –by Jan Sutch Pickard

Compassionate God,

in our minds we pray among the rubble,

the unholy mess of demolitions,

in the land we call Holy.

In our hearts we hold families who have lost homes,

children who have seen their schools destroyed,

communities which no longer have a clinic.

We pray for them as they weep for all that's lost.

We pray that they will not lose hope.

And we pray too

for the men who drive the bulldozers, soldiers who beat protesters, politicians who sign the orders –

aware that such actions destroy their humanity.

Bless those who campaign against injustice,

bless the patient rebuilders;

bless those who hope against hope that peace with justice will prevail in the land that we call Holy. Amen

Parish rotas – if you have a parish responsibility, eg. Reading, Cleaning,

Refreshments etc., and are going to be away,

please make sure there is someone to replace you so that these services can continue

Bingo Tea- has been moved from 27th July to 3rd August. August Bingo Tea will be on Saturday 31st August.

Helping the NHS – during the course of July funds are being raised to provide facilities the NHS needs but is unable to afford. Our Developing World Group and friends have chosen to support the appeal by Coventry & Warwick Hospital to build a much needed bereavement suite in their new Neo-Natal Clinic. We will be selling cakes at the Friendly Club on Wednesday July 24th and after Masses on the weekend of July 27/28. Your support will be very much appreciated.

Friendly Club – there will be no meetings during August and we start back on Wednesday September 4th.

Mass Intentions – We have now almost completely run out of Mass intentions. If you would like to have a Mass said for your intentions or in memory of a deceased person, please hand it in to the Priory on a clearly marked envelope and we will say it as soon as possible.

Family Days – we are trying to arrange opportunities for families to come and use the church field for picnics and games on Thursdays during August. If you might be interested please collect a letter from the priests.
